

BORSELLINO SALAMI

Meaty, succulent, and shelf stable, our Borsellino Salami is perfect for throwing in your bag at the start of a long day. Plain Borsellino: meaty with a hint of fennel. Spicy Borsellino: savory and spiced with Pimenton de la Vera and red chili. Both are best served simply. Just add cheese, crusty bread, and wine for the ultimate picnic or quick dinner!

Our Borsellino salami is named in honor of Herb and Kathy's dear friend Rob Borsellino, who passed away in 2006. The name also translates to 'purse' in Italian – very appropriate for this easy-to-love small format salami. Very popular for gift baskets and for cross merchandizing with cheeses or beverages displayed out of the cooler.
